CapitaLand to invest ₹1.9K cr on data centre

SHUBHRA TANDON
New Delhi, December 13

CAPITALAND INDIA TRUST Management will be investing ₹1,940 crore to develop its third data centre in India, which will come up in Ambattur, Chennai. The company is acquiring a 4.01 acres freehold site for ₹83.28 crore for it.

The investments will be made in phases over the next four-five years. The data centre will have a power capacity of 55 megawatt (MW) to host customers such as global technology giants and cloud service providers, as well as large domestic enterprise clients. The acquisition of the site is expected to be completed by December 2022. The data centre is scheduled to be completed by end-2025.

“With this latest acquisition, CLINT will have a presence in India’s key data centre markets. We will be developing a data centre in Navi Mumbai and another two data centres within our International Tech Parks in Bengaluru and Hyderabad. Our data centres will further enhance the quality of CLINT’s portfolio and deliver sustainable returns to unit holders,” Sanjeev Dasgupta, chief executive officer, CLINT, said.

When fully developed, the data centre will have the capacity to host around 4,900 racks, said Surajit Chatterjee, managing director (data centre), India, CapitaLand Investment (CLI).

Demand for data centres in India is rising due to improving technology infrastructure and increasing adoption of new technologies like 5G, artificial intelligence, cloud and the Internet of Things. These factors are expected to expand India’s total data centre capacity to 1,580 MW by 2026 at a compound annual growth rate of 22%. Chennai is India’s second largest data centre co-location market with current IT load capacity of 88 MW—about 12% share of India’s total capacity.

“In the last five years, $14 billion has been invested in India’s data centre sector, and the amount is expected to cross $20 billion by 2025. CapitaLand’s strong core competencies in data centre design, development and operations will enable us to seize opportunities in the country as we build our new economy portfolio globally,” said Patrick Boocock, CEO (private equity alternative assets), CLI.

Last month, global private equity investor Blackstone announced the start of its data centre business in Asia from India, under Lumina Cloud Infra, and laid down plans to scale it up to 600 MW over the next two years through presence in five locations of Mumbai, Chennai, Delhi-NCR, Hyderabad and Pune.

Edible oil sales see sharp drop in Nov, demand may rise in wedding season

SHUBHRA TANDON
New Delhi, December 13

RETAIL SALES OF edible oil saw a sharp drop in November compared with October but increased out-of-home consumption is expected to keep its demand in good stead.

With consumers stocking up larger quantities in the buildup to the festival season in October, and perhaps utilising those now, there was a drop in demand for edible oil in November.

Additionally, there has also been an increase in sales of lower-priced or mass brands during the festival season.

With edible oil forming a major portion of commodities, the segment sales declined 23.7% month-on-month in November, according to data sourced from consumer data intelligence firm Bizom.

“We are seeing consumers lowering spending on premium edible oil brands in favour of lower priced brands and this trend is being observed across the category,” said Akshay D’Souza, chief of

Nov saw lower sales because Oct had big festivals, which led to demand throughout the month

growth and insights at Bizom.

“November saw lower sales principally because October had three big festivals—Dussehra, Diwali and Chhath Pooja, which led to demand throughout the month. And normally people pick up five-litre cans instead of one-litre pouch around festivals. So yes, stocking at homes is surely higher, therefore, sales at retail stores were lower in November,” Adani Wilmar MD and CEO Angshu Mallick told FE.

The demand in India and other destinations has been good. Stock has increased in the last one month

SUDHAKAR DESAI, CEO, EMAMI AGROTECH

However, with the wedding season kicking off from November 15, Mallick said the out-of-home consumption has picked up sharply, with demand for bulk packs and 15-litre tins on the rise from caterers, hotels and banquet halls.

“With more than 3 million weddings scheduled to take place in India over the next four to five months, and edible oil being a principal item consumed for food, the consumption is good and steady.
